

MIS Event

Friday 21st November 2008

The Crowne Plaza NEC, Birmingham

9.30 - 10.00	Registration and exhibition Tea and coffee
10.00 - 10.05	Welcome Paul Heinrich, Chair, Naace Board of Management
10.05 - 10.50	Keynote Presentation What have Management Information Systems ever done for us? - Simon Shaw - Head of Institutional Management, Becta.
10.52 - 11.35	Keynote Presentation Effective application of MIS data and its impact in schools - Lesley Webb (Capita).
11.35 - 12.20	Workshops (4) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tracking Pupil Progress in the Primary School - Maggie Nixon • MIS and Systems Interoperability Framework (SIF) - Karen Crowston - Head of Policy, Link2ICT (a division of Service Birmingham) • Making Assessment data usable in the primary classroom - Jon Williamson
12.20 - 13.30	Buffet Lunch and Networking + Exhibition
13.30 - 14.15	What cloud computing will mean for Education Management? RM
14.15 - 15.00	Workshops (4) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tracking Pupil Progress in the Primary School - Maggie Nixon • MIS and Systems Interoperability Framework (SIF) - Karen Crowston - Head of Policy, Link2ICT (a division of Service Birmingham) • Making Assessment data usable in the primary classroom - Jon Williamson
15.00 - 15.45	Keynote presentation System Interoperability - Una Simpson, National Strategies
15.45 - 16.00	Closing Comments
16.00	Close